

The ICC is grateful for the collaboration with photographer Sofiaodora (Sofia Dora Chilleri). Sofiaodora is an analogic self-taught photographer. Based in Italy, Bologna, she graduated in foreign languages and literature. Sofiaodora is a supporter of Lomography and Polaroid, and not a fan of post-production. Devoted to beauty and poetry, she sees the world inside and outside like a kaleidoscope that changes constantly and quickly. You just have to catch the moment and choose a section, a different and personal point of view.
